Today is a somber day of remembrance, 2,977 people died at the hands of Islamist Jihadi's. Among them 343 Firefighters, 60 Law Enforcement Officers, 8 Emergency Medical Technicians, my brothers and sisters in the emergency services. This is what I woke up to.

NYT “misstep” goes to their internal worldview. What happened 18 years ago today was not, “some people did some things,” so NYT, pull out of the anti-journalistic nose dive you are engaged in and get a grip on reality.

Why Are the Legacy Media Afraid of Free Speech on Social Media?

By Jarrett Stepman

Left-leaning media institutions have held power and directed the news "narratives" for more than half a century. The rise of the internet poked holes in that monopoly, and the free-wheeling nature of social media platforms destabilized it further.

Great update from the AZ School Facilities Board. FY2020 New School Facilities funding $75.9 Million, FY2021 and additional $45.8 Million. Drinking water story a good one, every single one of our schools are lead free, 11,585 schools, 180 districts 100% now ADEQ approved!

-SFB 'Value Proposition' in Arizona's 11th Legislative District

In FY 2019, the School Facilities Board invested $3,194,935 in Arizona's 11th Legislative District at the following school districts:
-Amphitheater United – $444,205 (Roofing, HVAC)
-Casa Grande Elementary – $696,061 (Roofing, HVAC, Plumbing, Surfaces)
-Casa Grande Union High School – $494,637 (Roofing, HVAC, Plumbing)
-Marana United - $1,195,414 (HVAC, Plumbing, Electrical, Roofing, Surfaces)
-Maricopa United – $135,520 (HVAC, Plumbing)
-Santa Cruz Valley Union High School – $62,217 (Plumbing, Surfaces, Roofing)
-Stanfield Elementary - $6,930 (Plumbing)
-Toltec Elementary - $159,951 (Electrical, Surfaces, Roofing)
This investment represents the SFB's commitment to safe and compliant learning environments for your constituents

-The Lead in Drinking Water Story:
The SFB collaborated with the AZ Dept. of Health Services and AZ Dept. of Environmental Quality in testing 11,585 buildings at 180 Arizona school districts for potential sources of lead in drinking water. ADEQ addressed health and environmental concerns, developed testing protocols, and evaluated the data. We publicly reported every test result and implemented remediation measures. Through the Building Renewal Grant program, the SFB funded the replacement of district drinking fountains and sink faucets and the installation of in-line filters at schools where necessary. Lead in drinking water is a huge potential problem in states across America. This herculean team effort in Arizona was accomplished in one year at a total cost of approximately $500,000. For complete information visit the SFB Lead in Drinking Water website at https://sfb.az.gov/slt-programs-2

The expression 'desperate times call for desperate measures' is believed to have originated with a saying coined by the ancient Greek physician, Hippocrates. Nothing new under the sun, just Democrats being Democrats.

Tucson Rep. @MarkFinchem supported a bill last year to try to keep an uneconomical coal plant burning in AZ, but now has concerns about the environmental damage solar panels and electric cars may cause. Wants bill to keep them out of landfills. Says it's an ALEC idea. (1/2)

NGS closure was divorced from fact, economics were less an issue than leftist disinformation. All energy production has an environmental impact, yes even solar panels. Facts matter, use them.

Get the Lead Out of Our Schools @SafeH2o4Schools · 1h

Odd,

why would AZ's DEQ even be concerned about toxic lead in the drinking & cooking water of our public school?

They told @mpsaz that children are NOT affected by chronically ingesting the toxic poison while at school-even at levels 240x EPA's limit.

When the District learned that some schools had faucets/bubblers with elevated lead levels, its representatives consulted with Dr. Bob England, Director of the Maricopa County Health Department, and Dr. Steven Curry, Co-Director of the Center for Toxicology and Pharmacology Education and Research at the University of Arizona College of Medicine – Phoenix, regarding the question of whether students or employees who have likely consumed water with elevated lead levels should be tested for lead poisoning. Dr. England and Dr. Curry separately offered this information:

1. Infants and young children are most susceptible to the effects of lead because the blood-brain barrier does not completely form until about age 6. Thereafter, the risk of health effects from lead exposure decreases rapidly.
2. Lead poisoning occurs primarily in the home. Students and employees do not consume sufficient water at school to be affected by lead contamination. Health providers are required to report incidents of lead poisoning to their County Health Department. The Maricopa County Health Department and Arizona Department of Health Services (ADHS) have no record of a child ever being treated for lead poisoning from a school's drinking water.
3. For these reasons, the Arizona Department of Environmental Quality (ADEQ) and ADHS do not believe it is necessary for a student or employee who has consumed drinking water with elevated lead levels at school to be tested for lead poisoning.

Maybe you show take steps to prove they are incorrect. $500,000 investment to make sure EVERY school has safe drinking water is something to celebrate, if you have proof that is not so, I want to see it.

Seriously? That approach has failed every time it has been attempted, prosperity flourishes when investors have money left to invest. It's called capital, maybe an econ 101 class is in order.

The Democrats' legislative record pales in comparison to @realDonaldTrump's three-year record as Commander in Chief.

They can't stand his record of promises made, promises kept.

And for this, they are pursuing impeachment.

Two days before President Trump was even sworn in, Democrats were calling for his impeachment.

This was their plan all along.

Democrats told us @realDonaldTrump was such a danger to America & to the '20 election that they had to impeach him NOW; they couldn't wait for court decisions.

Interesting, Democrats want to remove a Democrat statue honoring a man of history, but seem ignorant of history; or have they just not dealt with the ghosts of the past and can't stand transparency. @VinceLeach @ReporterGreen @realDonaldTrump @GOPLeader @RepAndyBiggsAZ @PressSec

My message to Sen. @mendezforaz and Rep. @AthenaSalman regarding their attacks on me, Senate President @fannkfann and the @AZSenateGOP following my invocation at the state capitol yesterday…

Yesterday as the Senate was about to begin its session, I found out I was listed to give the Senate invocation, which I found both surprising and a bit frustrating. Surprising, because I had been told that Sen. Mendez wanted to have my assigned slot since it aligned with "Secular Day" at the state capitol and I had agreed to the change weeks prior. Frustrating, because I usually try to get a pastor from my district to give the prayer when it's my turn, though I will sometimes give it myself, taking the time to write one out ahead of time. I didn't have that chance but went ahead and gave the invocation, a "decidedly Christian prayer" because I'm a Christian. Soon after, I started getting tagged in vitriolic tweets attacking me for (according to Rep. Salman) "hijacking" the prayer from Sen. Mendez. This despite Sen. President Karen Fann's profuse apologies for the apparent mix-up. And though Sen. Mendez declared he wasn't going to be "petty" about the issue, he took to twitter to attack me, the AZ Senate GOP and dismiss President Fann's apologies as a "lie" as evidenced by the belief that I "happened to have my own invocation ready."

Friend, first, despite your attacks and false accusations about me yesterday I'm still willing to trade with you in the future if the situation warrants, even though you've said you want invocations to be eliminated altogether. But, second, as an FYI because I know you have a very different religious belief system than I, my invocation was off the cuff. I didn't have advanced notice, so I simply prayed from the heart. I had nothing formally prepared. However, because prayer is a regular part of my life, I don't need to script out invocations ahead of time, though I always have previously. I guess in a way you were correct, though, that I had an invocation "ready," even if it wasn't the scripted, pre-written kind. But that's simply because, as a person who tries to pray regularly, I am always ready in any moment to give praise to the God of Heaven. Psalm 34:1.

Do you know what namaste means? It means to honor and acknowledge the spirit of another. Who does trump honor? His actions show us he only honors himself. We will see how he acts. I pray he can act like a human.

AZ SOS Must Comply with Law, Allow Candidates to Collect Nomination Petitions Online. @MarkFinchem #AZLeg azleg.gov/press/house/54 …

Arizona House of Representatives
Representative Mark Finchem (R-11)
1700 West Washington • Phoenix, Arizona • 85007

Thursday, March 26, 2020
FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Rep. Finchem: AZ Secretary of State Must Comply with Law, Allow Candidates to Collect Nomination Petitions Online

STATE CAPITOL, PHOENIX – Representative Mark Finchem (R-11), Chairman of the House Federal Relations Committee, today released the following statement:

"The E-Qual online portal system, which is managed by the Arizona Secretary of State, has been up and running since before the 2018 election, accepting candidate nomination petition signatures for federal, statewide, and legislative offices.

"Under state law, candidates for city, town, or county office, and precinct committeeman are also entitled to online signature collection but, thus far, they have been denied access to the state's E-Qual portal. The Secretary of State's office has not yet fully complied with the law, even though funds were allocated in prior years budgets to update the system.

"The law is clear. Providing a secure online signature collection portal for candidates running for city, town, or county office, or for precinct committeeman, is not optional for the Secretary of State. Arizona Revised Statutes 16-317.A reads, 'Notwithstanding any other statute in this title, the secretary of state shall provide a system for qualified electors to sign a nomination petition for candidates for city or town office, county office and the office of precinct committeeman by way of a secure internet portal.'

"Social distancing measures necessitated by the coronavirus pandemic are a sound public health practice, but it is having severe negative impact on the ability of candidates running for various offices around the state to collect in-person nomination petitions, as well as county officials who manage elections.

Makes me Hink of the Toby Keith song, "How do ya like me now?"

Singapore's Sentosa Island that marked the first time a sitting US president has met with a leader from the isolated country.

In front of television cameras broadcasting images live around the world, the two leaders walked toward each other with hands outstretched for the momentous handshake. President Trump reached out to touch Kim's shoulder while, according to pool reports, the leader of the North Korean nation could be heard saying, "Nice to meet you Mr. President."

After the 10-second handshake, the two turned toward cameras and stood side by side.

RED FOR ED, OR JUST PLAIN RED?

Arizona Educators United leader Noah Karvelis raised eyebrows with his decision to speak at a socialism conference in Chicago last week. At the International Socialist Organization's Socialism 2018 conference, Karvelis participated in a session titled, "Striking Back: Voices of the Teachers Rebellion." Karvelis recounted how the #RedForEd movement grew in Arizona and how AEU grew from a Facebook page to an organization of around 60,000. "What we did is we said we've had enough. Forget about the rules. We're making our own rules. We're standing up and we're fighting back. And that's what Arizona Educators United, and each one of these movements, truly says. It's time for us to take control," Karvelis said in his speech, a video of which can be seen on the conference's Facebook page

I bet they're mad that their kids have outdated text books and over crowded classrooms plus an increasing teacher shortage because the legislature won't fund public education properly.

Definitely not defending De Blasio (not a fan) but this video was taken after a concert in the park where people waited in line for hours. They came back later to cleanup. I lived in NYC for 5 years and I've never seen the park look like that outside of after a parade.

It would be fun to get CNN out of airports. Especially considering this may be one of the few places people actually watch. (Nothing else to do!) If enough people object, airports will yank this joke of a network or at least feature a variety of newscasts. Let's complain!

This Board should be ashamed & so should Dr. Finch. Why don't teachers get their performance pay because their class moved up a year last year.

We worked to fix so many issues over the last years and in just 8 months these three have gone backwards. A lot driven by school boards association. We really need to clean up title 15 to take out loopholes.

So damn the teacher shortage, politics full speed ahead? WOW, great justification for the Classroom Code of Ethics.

Rumors flying the person "sweating it out" getting signatures is a target of Phoenix Union "elite". She is shunned by many peers under the directions of @stephparra08. PUHSD is politicly & racial motived only, education is for open time only.

In Arizona, we are seeing tremendous government overreach. The universal mask policies cross the line. The leaders who make these orders are abusing their power.

On this issue, they certainly resemble autocrats rather than public servants.

There is a slight "tell" in there and he tries to cover himself.

Trump said, "I said I wasn't going to get involved". That is past tense, which implies Durham is done. He quickly caught it and said, "maybe I should". But all in all, he wouldn't be told if it was still going on.

I keep seeing mask hysteria on Twitter today.

I have to ask: If your mask works, why do you care if I have one on?

Do masks only work if 2 masks are involved? Does that make you think maybe they don't work?
Can you wear 2 masks & STFU?

And again I ask, why is the focus on "cases" and not mortality? Myopic focus on cases leaves suicide, drug abuse, mental abuse and other illnesses and mortality are ignored.

This is how elections are stolen and it must be stopped. Federal activist judges don't make election law, elected representatives do. The fact that only democrats are cheering this ruling today should make it perfectly clear how diabolical and slanted this ruling is.

High voter turnout = Republicans lose. That's how out of step Republicans are with the experience, opinion, and values of the majority of Americans today. They fear voters.

"Monday wasn't a hearing, it was a meeting, hearings happen at the capitol." News flash... hearings can happen anywhere, anytime when a LEGISLATOR calls for one. Epitome of arrogance, don't see Gov in Article II, Sec. 1, Constitution of the United States.

Let me get this straight:

The FBI has enough resources, time and energy to spy on Trump's campaign in 2016 but they can't muster together the forces to investigate voter fraud in 2020?

The only way we can have fair and HONEST elections is to be 100% transparent in the elections process.

We need signature audits on all mail-in ballots received. There is too much information showcasing fraud in the Arizona elections.

ANY fraud in our elections is unacceptable.

Is a signature audit actually taking place? Are people really looking at ballots right now?

To Maricopa County Board of Supervisors, don't ya think you should conduct a total forensic audit of all Dominion equipment and related software? If it happened in Georgia it is likely to have happened here.

Dominion System Flips Georgia Trump Votes to Biden
State Orders Counties to Certify Dominion Results Anyway

ATLANTA GA – VoterGA announced today it has confirmed the Dominion Democracy Suite 5.5 system used throughout Georgia flipped dozens of votes cast in at least one county for President Donald Trump to former Vice President Joe Biden during the November 3rd 2020 election. Dominion vote flipping from Trump to Biden was previously believed to have occurred only in Antrim County, Michigan where the system swapped 6,000 votes from Trump to Biden.

In Georgia, Ware County Elections Director confirmed that the recently completed hand count audit totals showed the total electronic vote count shorted Donald Trump 37 votes and added those 37 votes to totals for Joe Biden. The 74 affected votes represents .52% of the 14,192 county votes cast, exactly double Biden's total statewide margin of .26%.

State Election Director Chris Harvey's November 16th memo instructed counties to certify all Dominion results if they included all ballots cast. After Harvey pressed counties to disregard any potential Dominion counting inaccuracies, Secretary of State (SOS) Brad Raffensperger ordered counties to reset their machines for the U.S. Senate race, which would destroy potential evidence of tabulation malware.

Secretary Raffensperger forced Georgia counties to enter their audit results into a centralized ARLO system rather than their own data sources. That broke the audit reporting chain and allowed the SOS office to tell counties what their results are rather than counties reporting their results to the state using generally accepted American election reporting principles. VoterGA polled all 159 counties and found roughly 150 of them had no electronic totals for their own hand count audit.

ARLO was created by VotingWorks, whose founder Ben Adida posted anti-Trump profanity on social media. The same is true for Dominion's Eric Coomer, the V.P of Systems Strategy and Security, a software patent holder and expert state defense witness in the Curling V. Raffensperger case against Georgia's Dominion voting system. Coomer, whose many historical posts on Social media prove he is an

We are doing the same from Maricopa County and Pima County. We must identify the fraud, and who perpetrated it. To all whistle blowers, the window of opportunity to speak up is closing, at some point a grand jury will ensue. You know how to reach me.

With the People dug in demanding a forensic audit, and the establishment asserting its oligarchy-based power, a lot of establishment types are now outing themselves. If you don't stand for the Constitution and your oath, we've already lost our republic. #stopthesteal

Even if true, it is irrelevant.
The BOS must comply with a subpoena by the Senate President or a standing-committee Chairman.
When session starts, rules will be adopted and DPS will arrest the BOS.

This is not JUST about the 2020 election. This is about all future elections in this country.

If we don't address the irregularities, the outdated voter rolls, issues with mail-in ballots and outright cases of fraud we will never have a fair and honest election again.

This is not JUST about the 2020 election. This is about all future elections in this country.

If we don't address the irregularities, the outdated voter rolls, issues with mail-in ballots and outright cases of fraud we will never have a fair and honest election again.

The states created the federal government, not the other way around. HR1 is a D.C. power grab the Constitution demands 50 checks against. I sent this letter to our Arizona Senators urging them to vote no on HR1: azag.info/hr1

Mark Brnovich @GeneralBrnovich · 2h

It's not the feds job to commandeer our state elections. Arizona already has laws to ensure intimidation-free voting while preventing disenfranchisement and fraud. Say no to HR1.

I agree. Above is my favorite passage of the Bible. If you want to read it all yourself go to Matthew 6:5 ...

> "We the People of the United States, in Order to form a more perfect Union, establish Justice, insure domestic Tranquility, provide for the common defense, promote the general Welfare, and secure the Blessings of Liberty to ourselves and our Posterity, do ordain and establish this Constitution for the United States of America."

So the AZ House just adjourned until June 10th?? Great leadership @speakerbowers! I'm so glad you're being recalled. @AZHouseGOP won't have to contend with you next session. That's a win for the people of AZ!

I take Sundays for church, family and recharge. But oftentimes clients will find me on Sundays or I will do some work to either catch up or get ahead for the upcoming week. Long vacations are tough. Sometimes I have to return early & must work while away. Politicians seem dif.

These guys spent big to get your favorite defender of election integrity elected. They won't cave to the pressure from the left that says they shouldn't donate to patriots who were in DC on 1/6 or that they shouldn't spend for those who speak up to say Trump won and Biden didn't.
